To The Class of 1993:

Your lifelong dream of high school graduation will soon be realized and the coveted high school diploma will be yours. This is a proud moment for you, your family and the Plainfield School System.

We are elated to bring you to the pinnacle of public schooling and encourage your continuance to a level that brings you satisfaction.

You are on the cutting edge to rebuild the greatest nation in the world. Since your arrival in school, you witnessed the break-up of Ma Bell, the crumbling of the Berlin Wall and the dissolution of the United Soviet Socialist Republic.

PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

Plainfield, N. J. 07060

Dear Graduating Seniors:

Four years of conscientious, hard work is about to reward you upon your graduation as a member of the Plainfield High School Graduating Class of 1993. Please, do no consider this the end; rather, the beginning. It is my fondest hope that your formal education will continue after you leave our school.

The change that all of you face encompasses not only your own careers but the future of our nation. You are among the initial group of only six or seven remaining graduation classes in the 1990s that will lead our nation into the Twenty-first Century. Needless to say, the challenge before you - economically, socially, politically, and perhaps most overwhelmingly-technologically - is an incredible one. All of you have an opportunity to make the most positive impact on the present and future history of our country. I know that you will rise to the challenge before you. You represent the hope that our nation has to maintain its status as a leader in the world today.

The administrative, supervisory, instructional and support staff of Plainfield High School wish you every success, health and happiness, always - in all ways.

Sincerely,

Lance S. Rozsa

Dear Nikki:
You were a bundle of joy that I missed. Circumstances do not matter. What's important to me is that you decided there is a place in your heart for me. You are daddy's little girl all grown-up on her way to college to pursue her dreams. I would like you to remember your dreams because they will one day become real. Yes, you dreams will be real. Dreams become real thru education, hard work, belief in oneself and spiritual guidance. I love you not because you are my daughter but because of the young woman you have become. Congratulations Sweetheart!

Love,
Daddy

Use common sense and good judgment, and do the best you can. Remember the "Golden Rule" and Have Fun.

Love your Mom and Dad

To: Stacey/Missy

You've reached one of the plateaus in your life, it may seem small to you, but it's great to us, you've made us proud of you. We look back over the years and we can only give God the glory for how he has enabled you to be strong and with such a determination. How can we forget the nights we prayed, cried and laughed together. Now you're no longer that little girl being lead by Ma and Dad, but an adult making her own choices, we know they will be good ones. Don't forget God who brought you through every battle with victory, now the real war begins. There's nothing you can't conquer, don't let anyone tell you, you can't make it, yes you can. If you consider God in everything you will be more than a conqueror. That ladder to success is not too tall 'YOU CAN MAKE IT'. Keep that strong determination, consider God ask him to direct your path. Remember life is a road, you need direction from God. Education alone is not enough, we don't care how successful you become, don't forget God that brought you through. We love you, our prayers will always be with you.

CONGRATULATIONS!
Love, Mommy and Daddy

As you wander
On through life,
Whatever be your goal,
Keep your eye upon
The doughnut and
Not upon the hole.

That's the Optimist's Creed . . . some unknown genius's shining advice to people starting out in life. Remember it after you graduate. Keep confidence in yourself. And may good fortune always be your companion.
